Church leaders understand that managing the day-to-day operations of a church can be challenging because of limited resources, managing volunteer labor, and supporting the needs of the congregation. Smart Church Management: A Quality Approach to Church Administration, Third Edition is an updated guide for managing the resources of a church - which is people, time and money. This book provides tools and examples for decision making and problem-solving for church administration that is easy to understand and more importantly, quick to implement! This book also includes discussion questions to provoke thought and discussion for church teams. This book is ideal for ministry students, church boards, church leadership and church administrators. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN THE SMALL MEMBERSHIP CHURCH is a comprehensive resource aimed at making religious education more effective all along the line in small churches. From a living ecology of solid theory and proven research, this book develops exciting possibilities and helpful procedures to maximize religious education opportunities in small church settings. Packaged with this volume is a huge wall chart summarizing highly important information on religious education in small membership churches. Often Church members are assigned duties and responsibilities or even placed in positions and are expected to perform productively WITHOUT sufficient training to prepare them for such tasks. This CHURCH MEMBERSHIP TRAINING BOOK (which was formerly titled: 'CHURCH WORKERS TRAINING BOOK' is the first volume of practically crafted and knowledgeably graded Biblical Church Membership training manual, compiled from over 20 years of practical training sessions held with Churches in Africa and Europe. (Nigeria, South Africa, Germany and Spain) This manual is simplified enough to be used as a teaching and learning tool for everyone or groups that will lay hands on it. The change of its name is due to the fact that it is important to take note that while most churches label some more committed members as Church Workers, every Disciple of Christ is supposed to serve in God's house/Kingdom. If anyone is not serving, he or she is most likely not one of us. Such people are mere guests or visitors in God's house. Often Church members are assigned duties and responsibilities or even placed in positions and are expected to perform productively WITHOUT sufficient training to prepare them for such tasks. This CHURCH MEMBERSHIP TRAINING BOOK is the second volume of practically crafted and knowledgeably graded Biblical Church Membership training manual, compiled from over 25 years of practical training sessions held with Churches in Africa and Europe. Excerpt from Guiding Youth to Church Membership: Suggestions as to Purpose, Problems, Personnel and Follow-Up of Training Classes for Those in Preparation for Membership in Full Communion in the Christian Church Experience in conducting Church Membership Training Classes suggests that these are most successfully held in most congregations twice a year, one commencing at the end of October or early November leading up to a December Communion, and the other in the spring just prior to the Easter Communion. To cover the material which should have consideration in such a class, a minimum of six sessions is required. It seems to be better to plan the course so that it may be covered in six weeks - for which period interest may be held successfully - rather than to extend it over a longer time when interest may flag and weariness result. It is most important that the arrangements be timed so that, whenever the classes begin or however long they continue, they should end during the week or on the Sunday just prior to the day on which the Communion Services are held. In some congregations it may be possible to conduct these special classes on a week day, arranging a time convenient to the members. Some very good classes have been conducted on Friday afternoons immediately after school; some others on Monday evenings between 7 and 8 o'clock. If it is possible to secure the attendance of the members of the class for one-half to three-quarters of an hour on Sunday, there are very many obvious advantages that one will find in having the Sunday meeting.
