Women Vietnam Veterans May 16 2022
Women Vietnam Veterans: Our Untold Stories, by Donna Lowery, a Vietnam veteran, chronicles the participation of American military women during the Vietnam War. This little-known group of an estimated 1,000 women from the Army, Marine Corps, Navy and Air Force left its mark in Vietnam from 1962 to 1973. They served in a myriad of duties from intelligence analysts, flight controllers, clerk-typists, translators, physical therapists, dietitians and communications specialists among many others. Our Untold Stories allows the women to speak for themselves about their experiences, and, for the first time ever, brings names, facts and figures together in one literary work. The purpose of the book is to be historically significant to future researchers. The history of the military women in Vietnam began in 1962 with Army Major Anne Marie Doering. She was born in what became North Vietnam. Her father was a French officer, her mother a German citizen. When her father died, her mother married an American businessman. Her service in Vietnam as a Combat Intelligence Officer is a compelling story of the US military women in a war zone. It was not until 1965 that the US Women's Army Corps (WAC) sent two women as advisors to assist the newly formed Vietnam Women's Armed Forces Corps. The following year, the Army authorized the establishment of a WAC Detachment in Vietnam. Soon, thereafter, the Air Force, Marine Corps and Navy also sent women to serve in various capacities. In March 1973, under the Paris Peace Accords, the last women left Vietnam along with the remaining men. The impact they had in Vietnam set the stage for the expansion and integration of women into additional roles in the military. Today, women serve in areas of active combat, demonstrating their abilities and dedication to the mission.

The Spirit of Development May 04 2021 This work is an ethnographic account of the work of transnational, Christian non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in Zimbabwe. Protestant NGOs are one of the voices of pluralism in southern Africa, sometimes challenging the state and at other times collaborating with it. The tensions of such engagement are key to understanding the successes and failures of transnational, humanitarian endeavors to foster democratic governance in Zimbabwe. While much scholarship has been focused, theoretically, on the role of NGOs in democratization in Africa regarding international foreign policy, few studies offer empirically grounded insights into how transnational NGOs operate. The Spirit of Development addresses, ethnographically, how an American discourse of Christian humanitarianism transforms and is transformed by, local settings.

Employee Benefit Plans 2017 Mar 14 2022 Considered the industry standard resource, this guide provides practical guidance, essential information, and hands-on advice on the many aspects of accounting and authoritative auditing for employee benefit plans. This new 2017 edition has been updated to include expanded information on related parties and parties in interest, plan transfers, and changes in service providers. Notably, the guide contains clarification on plan transfers--identifying a plan transfer may be challenging because the reports provided by the trustee or custodian may classify the transfer as a conversion, miscellaneous adjustment, or as contributions or distributions, rather than a plan transfer. Further, the date at which the plan's assets physically transfer (assets move from the predecessor plan's trust to the successor plan's trust) may differ from the effective date of the transfer (the date at which the plan assets are legally transferred to the control of another plan), according to relevant plan amendments or other documents. In addition, this edition has been updated for requirements related to going concern and provides the main provisions of those requirements.

How to Get a UK Visa for a Thai Dec 23 2022 This book is a guide to obtaining a UK visitor's visa for a friend or loved one. It is sometimes referred to as a fiancée visa, because, in Thailand at least, many men try to get one for their girlfriend. Having said that, the details in this book apply to anyone trying to obtain a visa for someone else and to any country without special status. The only difference would be the location of the embassy. However, this book does not go into the details of how to fill in the forms. The embassy's website and staff are better at that and the questions change anyway. Rather, this book tells the applicant and sponsor what the embassy help desk does not say or at least hides very well. It guides you in the minefield of how you are expected, but never told how, to prove that you are in a 'long-standing relationship' so that you get your visa the first time and avoid unnecessary, expensive agency fees and the heartache of refusal. The cost of the book includes unlimited free email consultation with the author.
