She says, the difference is "My poems are not written in stone, they can be changed as time passes along." His will is tough and he is unwilling to be normal. However, his pathway was destined to be that way, being born in a small sect's branch. However, one day, his left eye merges with the eye of an Ancient God in an accident. From that moment on, he turns from a fish into a dragon. He rises up like a star, walking the path of a legendary cultivator. From being a tiny, small ant at the bottom of the world, he rises step by step, into a place full of powerful sects, strong ancient clans and countless geniuses. This is an era of legends. My fated mate can break my curse—if he sacrifices me. Hundreds of warriors have braved my domain. They came, and they died. I killed them all. In a land of poisoned sands and unending drought, I've been trapped as a dragon for centuries. When yet another warrior comes to my lair, I can't wait to rip him apart. But this man knows my secret. He waits for my true form to be revealed in the light of the full moon. For three nights only, I can walk, talk, and love like a human woman. Though there's very little humanity left in me after so many centuries. He survives my teeth and claws. He even survives my fire. The unafraid, stoic warrior is a worthy mate that even my ferocious dragon heart can't deny. Until I learn that he must sacrifice me to save his people. This warrior may be the one to finally break my curse... if I'm willing to make the greatest sacrifice of all. But then his mother asks him to play a dangerous game that will lead either to one of dragonkind's most precious relics—or deliver him into the hands of old enemies. Unfortunately he's not the only dragon seeking Giselda's Egg, and he must rely on his former flame, Jessica Kearney, to help him find the artifact first. Yet as they follow clues and fight off competitors, Garrett realizes the only treasure he really wants is the heart of the woman he left behind. READ THE WHOLE SERIES! 1. The Pack Rules: Alpha 2.
