"Amazingly raw and candid . . . Come As You Are is as good as rock bios get" —Billboard Nirvana came out of nowhere in 1991 to sell nearly five million copies of their landmark album Nevermind whose thunderous sound and indelible melodies embodied all the confusion, frustration, and pain of the emerging Generation X. Come As You Are is the close-up, intimate story of Nirvana—the book with exclusive in-depth interviews with bandmembers Kurt Cobain, Krist Noveselic, and Dave Grohl, as well as friends, relatives, former bandmembers, and associates—now updated to include a final chapter detailing the last year of Kurt Cobain's life, before his tragic suicide in April 1994.

searing portrait of Muslim life in the West, this "profound and intimate" memoir captures one's struggle to forge an American Muslim identity (Washington Post) Haroon Moghul was thrust into the spotlight after 9/11, becoming an undergraduate leader at New York University's Islamic Center, and forced into appearances everywhere: on TV, before interfaith audiences, in print. Moghul was becoming a prominent voice for American Muslims even as he struggled with his relationship to Islam. In high school he was barely a believer and entirely convinced he was going to hell. He sometimes drank. He didn't pray regularly. All he wanted was a girlfriend. But as he discovered, it wasn't so easy to leave religion behind. To be true to himself, he needed to forge a unique American Muslim identity that reflected his beliefs and personality. How to Be a Muslim reveals a young man coping with the crushing pressure of a world that fears Muslims, struggling with his faith and searching for intellectual forebears, and suffering the onset of bipolar disorder. This is the story of the second-generation immigrant, of what it's like to lose yourself between cultures and how to put the pieces back up the pieces. Snow Goer magazine has combed its comprehensive archive of articles from long-time contributor David Wells to assemble a collection of profiles of the most interesting machines sport has ever seen. There is an impressive array of machines, including sleds from the four major brands--Polaris, Ski-doo, Yamaha, and Arctic Cat--and many other well-known names like Ariens, Bolens, Evinrude, and Johnson, and even some obscure names like Roll-O-Flex and Dauphin. In addition to the profiles, there are background features on "Snowbikes" through the years, a look at "rebadging," and an in-depth flashback to the fabulous factory speed run and racing wars of the early 1970's.
