Be Filled Now Apr 22 2020 It is not, be filled tomorrow, when we hope we shall have improved, but be filled now in the midst of our failure and current need. This experience of present-tense blessedness can only be possible by the grace of God making every blessing available on street level.

Exiles on Mission Sep 20 2022 Many Christians in the West sense that traditional Christian teaching is losing traction in the public square. What does faithful Christian witness look like in a post-Christian culture? Paul Williams, the CEO of one of the world's largest and oldest Bible societies, interprets the dissonance Christians often experience while trying to live out their faith in the 21st century. He provides constructive tools to help readers understand culture in myriad contexts and offer a missional response. Williams calls for a truly missional understanding of post-Christianity whereby local churches are reimagined as embassies of the kingdom of God and Christians serve as ambassadors in all spheres of life and work. This book invites readers to embrace the language of exile and imagine a hopeful mission of the scattered and gathered church in the post-Christian West. It shows a clear pathway for fruitful missional engagement for the whole people of God, helping Christians make sense of the world in which they live, more authentically integrate faith with everyday life, and orient all of their efforts within God's missional purpose for the world.

The Principles Behind Jesus' Ministry Dec 19 2019 The book is titled "The principles behind the miracles of the Lord Jesus Christ." More than ever before as the world advances in knowledge of science and technology, miracles are being supplanted by gimmickry and Christianity is fast becoming like other religions whose credentials are a set of moral dos and don'ts. Christianity has always been about exercising dominion and wielding the power of God in the affairs of men and creation. If the Church loses this ability, then evangelism will make no meaning and people will not be born-again and the Lord's second coming will be delayed indefinitely. I pray that our generation shall fulfill the command of the Master to go into all the nations of the world, preaching the gospel to all creatures and making disciples of men and teaching them to observe all things whatsoever He commanded us. The goals of this book are as follows:1. To help Christians all over the world particularly in our age understand how to fulfill Jesus' promise that the works He did shall we do and greater works too. 2. To help Christians the world over, answer the question of the Lord Jesus that "When the Son of man shall come, shall He find faith on the earth" in the affirmative.3. To bring the knowledge of the glory of God to fill the earth as the waters cover the seas. 4. To help 21st Century believers understand that God is still the same as He was 21 Centuries ago.5. To help 21st Century believers know how to bring the power of God into their everyday life situations. This book is meant for the following people:1.Operators of the Five-Fold Ministry (Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors and Teachers)2. Teachers of the Bible 3. Ministers of the Gospel 4. Believers and Disciples of Jesus Christ 5. Believers who are still operating at the level of church membership but desire to graduate to becoming disciples of Jesus Christ 6. Unbelievers seeking and searching for the truth about the nature and character of God Furthermore - the text discloses: The Lord had a brief - Become a human and reconcile men and creation back to God The Lord had a focus - Do The work and finish it The Lord had a target audience - Stay within the nation of Israel and attend primarily to Jewish people except... The Lord had a scope - Introduce eternal life starting now The Lord had boundaries - time-bound (thirty three and a half years), geographical (Israel of the 1st Century), racial (Jews only), social (laborers and the heavy laden), cultural (Jewish culture), doctrinal (the King and His Kingdom as mirrored by the Law and the Prophets), manifestational (refocus and re-calibrate human beings and creation), transitional (build, empower and send the Ecclesia) The Lord has to finish His work within time allotted Him. So how did He manage to swing all these to dos while being surrounded by so much don'ts and constraints? We can safely say that He followed a tightly regimented and superbly choreographed lifestyle. He simply mirrored the invisible God. But behind every good and "ungood," cool and "uncool" (ask the scribes, elders, chief priests, Pharisees and Sadducees for instances of) act, speech and deed of the Lord Jesus, there is a reason, a principle and indeed a reusable template that when carefully studied, affords a ringside view of heaven's operation on earth and enables any human being to understand and know the God of the universe a little bit better. The Principles Behind the Miracles of Jesus Christ is a treatise on the eleven consistent principles that guided and bounded why, what, how, where, when and with whom of the miracles [performed by the Lord Jesus Christ. He just did not raise a dead twelve-year-old girl while demanding faith from the father of another boy. He did not heal a paralytic man in the synagogue on the Sabbath because he was powerless on other days.

Beyond Left and Right Feb 25 2023 The 2008 U.S. presidential election is already heating up, fueled by debates about religion and politics, and dividing people of faith. Many Christians want to engage in politics but feel underequipped and overwhelmed. Wheaton College political scientist Amy E. Black believes Christians must become politically educated, not stereotyped and polarized. Beyond Left and Right offers a complete guide to the inner workings of American politics, equipping readers to think intelligently and to actively engage politics with their faith. Black is intentionally unbiased and avoids fleeting hot-button issues, ensuring the staying power of Beyond Left and Right, even after the election dust settles. Recommended for Christians and students interested in faith and politics.

Personal Piety a Help to Christians to Walk Worthy of Their Calling Jul 26 2020

Disciples Are Made Not Born Nov 22 2022 "Make Disciples." Jesus' command is clear. But what is a disciple? And how are we to "make" them? Based on decades of experience, this book explains and illustrates the process of disciple-making that Jesus taught and modeled. First published in 1974, its practical, biblical approach has revolutionized the ministry of hundreds of thousands of Christians as they learned how to multiply themselves in the lives of others. Disciple-making is challenging, to be sure. But as we are faithful to Christ's Great Commission, we'll experience the fulfillment that comes from being faithful to the life mission to which God has called us.

Christians have Crisis?

UNDERSTANDING CRISIS AND THE AFTERMATH

Oct 29 2020 Of course Christians have crisis! As human beings, we are surrounded by temptation, we all make mistakes and we all suffer with trials in our lives.

Unfortunately, there are well-intended Christians who attempt to minister to those suffering or in crisis without realizing how their words of wisdom could actually be counterproductive and potentially harmful. This book is a resource for ministry leaders, parents, teachers, and caregivers regarding mental illness, chronic pain, abortion, abuse, and addictions. It also covers marital and family issues. There are facts included throughout the book to reveal the prevalence of each topic and listed resources to increase knowledge in those areas. Scripture is included throughout the book to provide solid Christian counsel through each topic. If someone came up to you today to reveal they are considering suicide or that they are addicted to porn or prescribed drugs, would you know what to say to them? What if someone wants to talk to you because they believe their spouse is having an affair, or a mother believes her child is being molested or bullied, or their adult child is being abused by their spouse? Would you know how to advise them? Are your words subjective? Are they productive? Are your words factual and scriptural? As a church, we need to teach that Christ is a loving and forgiving God. We need to have compassion for the misunderstood. As a church, we need to be knowledgeable of current fads, common problems in societies and families so we know how to respond to crises appropriately. As a church, we need to encourage a safe environment for those in need.

We need to minister to people with open minds and open hearts. And we need to know when it is time to reach out for professional help.

The Gift of Speaking in Tongues Oct 17 2019 What do you know about speaking in tongues? A lot has been said about speaking in tongues, one of the most misunderstood and rarely used gifts in all Christianity. A huge percentage of Christians don't understand WHY they should speak in tongues. The rest don't think they have it in them to speak in tongues. Some Christians don't even believe in the gift of speaking in tongues. They are still stuck with the question, "is speaking in tongues really for me?" The answer is a simple one; speaking in tongues is for every Christian filled with the Holy Spirit. Many Christians have received the gift of speaking in tongues, which has helped stimulate their faith, get their prayers answered, multiply God's love and power in their lives and helped them receive healing and victory in their endeavors. For others, receiving the Holy Spirit's gift isn't the most exciting thing for them in today's world, but it is one of the most important gifts you can receive as a Christian today. You may be okay with the occasional prayers you say in the morning, at night, and in between your daily schedules. But when you really need to activate and pray from your spirit (and not from your understanding), you realize that you can't. And what's a poor Christian like you to do? Here's what you shouldn't do... You shouldn't stop trying to receive the gift, that's why I have written this book to help you with one thing; receive the gift of speaking in tongues. This book explores various topics on how you can receive this gift, including How to Pray in Tongues at Will You will learn; -What the Bible says about speaking in tongues - Being Saved and Being Filled with The Holy Spirit -Quality Prayer Points to Bring Up to Start Speaking in Tongues -The Basic Requirement for Speaking in Tongues -The Significance of the Manifestation of the Holy Spirit -How to Obtain the Holy Spirit and the Power to Speak in Tongues -How to Get Ready for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit - Speaking in Tongues and Staying with The Grace -How to Pray in Tongues at Will If some -or even all- of the above are hindering you from claiming the gift the Holy Spirit is willing to give you today, then you should immerse yourself in the Heavenly nuggets you will find scattered in this book to help you unlock and have access to your gift. Guide Power May 04 2021 BIBLE GUIDE Some years ago I put together a book that became a tool that guided people into truth and the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. I desired to make something to be used in follow-up that could be effective. Early on in my studies I became quite irritated with bible concordances not providing clear verses that deal with the subject matter. So I wanted to make something clear, easy and to the point.All anyone would have to do would be to read the booklet and view the verses. I wanted to make it easy to follow and interesting enough to hold interest yet comprehensive in content. I have used this method of the follow-up booklet for many years with Christians and non-Christians. Bible studies can be a fun, enjoyable and effective opportunities for Christians to do something pleasing to God and to get to know God at the same time. Watching and helping someone start a new life is a blessing. Watching and helping Christians grow in their understanding and knowledge of the Scriptures and God is also a blessing.

Making the Transition Nov 17 2019 Do you find it hard to serve God the way others do? How can you know what His will is for your life? Are you trying to understand why you act the way you do? Making the Transition can help you find answers to these questions and more. You'll appreciate its relevance, practicality, and strong biblical foundation. This workbook will help you identify the unique character God gave you, recognize the ways sin corrupted it, and work with Him to redeem it. You will discover how your spiritual gifts, personality traits, and interests equip you to fulfill your life purpose, like a specialized tool designed to perform a specific task. Doing God's will for your life can be extremely fulfilling and rewarding. Larry Fox has more than thirty years of teaching experience in Christian seminars, workshops, and adult Bible studies, and was founder and dean of his church's school of the Bible. His passion is helping Christians become spiritually mature and discover the person God made them to be. His career includes engineering, management and church business administration. He and his wife Shirley have served as leaders in several churches and ministries.

Living Principles Jun 05 2021 We have a problem. Christ mandated us to "go and make disciples" (Matt. 28:19). The problem is, most Christians aren't comfortable doing that and, therefore, aren't. Statistics tell us that only 10% of Christians have the "gift" of evangelism. That means that only about 10% are comfortable sharing their faith with strangers. These people don't need an invitation to talk; they are quite comfortable broaching the subject of Christianity. I'm happy for them-jealous even! But what about the remaining 90%? What about us? Well, we are generally silenced by fear. Fear is the number one reason Christians don't share their faith (and I'm not blaming them). Some Christians who do not have the gift of evangelism are afraid of being too aggressive or confrontational with non-Christians. Some are afraid of offending another person and being rejected. Still others are afraid that if they start talking about their faith, the non-Christian will ask questions that they can't answer, and they will be exposed as ignorant about the very thing they claim is the most important part of their lives. In any case, most Christians are afraid and, consequently, not involved in the Great Commission. No wonder church growth in America has been stagnant for the last few decades. This can't continue. Contemporary Christianity is like a giant ship running off-course. But what are we to do? Well, I think I have at least part of the solution-it's what I call the "Living Principles." These four simple principles can help any Christian-even those who don't have the gift of evangelism-to be intentional about sharing their faith in the course of their daily lives. In short, these principles can help you get in the game. And imagine what a difference it will make if just some of the 90% without the gift of evangelism started being as effective as the 10% with the gift. We might just turn this ship around after all.

Intentional Agape Dec 23
2022 The presentation of the Gospel through most traditional evangelical churches today has confused the world. Instead of condemnation, judgment, and hypocrisy, Jesus wants us to present His Gospel with unconditional love. But that can only be done by completely surrendering our lives to Him. Inspiring and uplifting, Intentional Agape shares insights and visions of God's love through the eyes of Pastor Kiely D. Young. Using personal anecdotes, Scripture verses, and passages from respected Christian authors, Young guides us in studying the nature of God's love and shows ways in which we can demonstrate this love to each other. This stirring call to reclaim the truth of the Gospel discusses how we can answer God's call to show unconditional love to our fellow man. Pastor Young lays out God's motivation, the mandate, the means, and the mission for achieving this goal, revealing how we can impact the world by implementing these small, yet important, steps. Written to confront and compel today's Christians to understand why God is still patient, but determined that we carry out

His plan, Intentional Agape is the incentive the whole of Christianity needs in this day and age to change the world. Connection Aug 19 2022 I hear Christians everywhere complaining that they feel far away from God or that when they do get connected to him, then they just cannot stay connected to him. I too had spent over twenty years seeking and, at many times, struggling to have that unhindered connection with him so that I can know I am approved and enjoy the abundant life that is meant to be mine. This book is to impart the knowledge he has taught me, and it is meant to open blind eyes. In Isaiah 6:10, we are told that eyes and ears had been closed. Otherwise, God's people would see and hear and be healed. We are in perilous times, and it is God's will to open our eyes so that we can seek him, find him, stay connected to him, and be healed as he pours his Spirit upon all flesh. He says he doesn't want the world to sleep anymore, as mentioned in 1

Thessalonians 5:6, and we are also told that it is due to a lack of knowledge that people perish (Hosea 4:6). Being born again is the first step, but it does not end there. In this book, we see with open eyes the obstacles that come between us and God and gain insight into what his heart and will is and how he is closer than we know so that we can finally have lasting connection. A Help to Devotion, for young and unlearned Christians Jan 20 2020

Honoring God in Red or Blue Apr 15 2022 Politics isn't a four-letter word. Everyone's been at that dinner party. The conversation takes a political turn. The arguments start, the atmosphere grows tense, and all that remains is a hopeless stalemate and an awkward silence. Makes you wonder . . . is thoughtful and productive dialogue about politics even possible? In Honoring God in the Red or Blue, Dr. Amy Black addresses the debaters as well as those intimidated or annoyed by the debaters; political junkies and the contented uninvolved. She explains the purposes and limitations of our system and helps readers create realistic expectations for government. While God's truth is perfect, human application of it is not, a reality that shouldn't deter us from engaging in debate and staying informed. Rather, it should challenge us to raise our standards for how we speak about the issues—and those in office. It's time to approach political divides with an extra measure of grace. Success begins with seeking God's honor first and foremost, regardless of where we fall on the political spectrum. Don't limit yourself to chatting about the weather.

Necessary for Jesus Jul 18 2022 Stephen Kirkendall, ChFC (chartered financial consultant), has helped Christians with financial investments for many years through mortgage loans, life insurance, investments, estate planning, retirement-income planning, and wealth management. He realized early on that most Christians have serious questions about tithing, but there seemed to be no solid answers. He decided to dig deeper into the truth in the Scriptures. There are too many wolves on TV, the Internet, and YouTube. They state that pastors who talk about tithing are thieves and that tithing is unscriptural and that they're getting away with it because no one is challenging them with the full truth. Churches have broken up over tithing. There are marriages that have ended in divorce because of tithing. The real, full truth needs to come out. It is so important that God uses more than seven chapters to explain! The result is the biblically driven study Necessary for Jesus. Most Christians know what was necessary for Jesus. Seventy prophecies fulfilled. Why don't Christians know what is necessary for Jesus? Seventy rewards for helping Jesus. During his search for answers, Kirkendall knew he could honestly answer questions about money by going straight to God's teaching""the Bible. Stephen also realized that when he used the Scriptures, it had to be copy-and-paste. All Christians, especially the church teachers and leaders, need to know the full truth about tithing and how the lessons about it in the Scriptures still apply today. Giving back to God is the wisest investment Christians can make. It will not only lead to financial security but also to a completely blessed and prosperous life. Guide for Covenant

Discipleship Groups Oct 21

2022 Covenant Discipleship Groups have a long history of helping Christians grow as disciples. Based on the early Methodist class meetings, Covenant Discipleship Groups provide a way for Christians today to be accountable disciples of Jesus Christ. Q&A's Q: WHAT IS A COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP? A: Covenant Discipleship Groups consists of up to seven persons who meet together for one hour each week to hold themselves mutually accountable for their discipleship. They do this by means of a covenant that they have written. Q: WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF A COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP? A: Covenant Discipleship Groups are intended solely for mutual accountability and prayerful support for living as disciples in the world. They are not where our discipleship happens but where we make sure that it happens. Q: WHY DOES THE GROUP NEED A COVENANT? A: The covenants we make with one another help us keep our covenant with God. We make covenants with one another because we live in a world that has yet to accept God's salvation. We constantly face temptations to turn away from God, and we need some means of mutual support. John Wesley and the early Methodists understood this need and saw that nothing short of binding themselves to mutual accountability would suffice. By the grace of God, they agreed to watch over each other in love. Q: WHY JOIN A COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP? A: By joining with other Christians in a weekly meeting, members of Covenant Discipleship Groups learn to center their lives on Jesus Christ by following his teachings and supporting one another in living out the basics of Christian discipleship. Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO ME IN A COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP? A: You will become more aware of God's grace in your life. You will find new ways of serving God and your neighbor. You will find your understanding of God's will greatly enhanced. Q: How WILL THIS BOOK HELP ME? A: This handbook is primarily a practical reference manual for starting, developing, sustaining, and incorporating Covenant Discipleship Groups into the mission and ministry of the church.

Always Ready Mar 14 2022
Many people consider themselves Christians but are not sure they're going to heaven. Do you know how to help them, how to answer their questions, how to pray for them as well as how to pray with them so they will know how God really forgives, not how they think He does? Always Ready features dozens of examples of real people who have been led out of their confusion to genuine faith in Christ. "More than ever, pastors and serious Christian lay people need the message and challenge of this book. It flows easily from the heart and life of one who has walked the pathway of following the mandate of Jesus to take His message to the hurting, the sick, the wounded, the lonely, the confused of this world. It will send a sensitive pastor to his knees to ask God for a burning heart, and he will share that with the flock committed to his care. Ronald Hotrum has spoken his heart...a heart that has lived every moment of this Christ-honoring record." —Robert L. Morris Professor, Greek, Bible, biblical and pastoral theology

Bethel College, Mishawaka, Indiana "I recommend this book to every Christian who is seriously interested in sharing their faith with pre-Christians and making a difference in Kingdom expansion. The book, Are You Ready? is, by far, the most helpful one I have read on how to pray and the need to clearly understand and articulate forgiveness. Pastor Hotrum's personal stories and experiences of leading people to Christ will keep you motivated to read more. This book is a simple treasure in assisting the Church to more effectively bring in the Harvest!" —Dr. J. Dale Erbele Director of Harvest Ministries of the Evangelical Church

Teachings to Help You Mar 02
2021 This book, "Teachings To Help You," is a bit different from the 5 other books that I have published. I have gone back to the series of teachings which I have done through the years and written a chapter on each of the subjects. I have explained it in a little more detail in the, "Introduction." Each of these subjects is related to helping Christians understand and walk-in the Christian life. Sometimes, teachings can concentrate on the doctrine so much (of course, it is very important) and the individual Christian needs to understand how to put it into practice in his or her life. That's what these teachings concentrate on. Please read these chapters carefully and, perhaps, over and over. My heart's desire is that you are really helped by them and that you even want to share the truths with others. Gloria Hartman was in the pastoral ministry with her husband for many years and was involved in teaching the Word of God. She had her own radio teaching program called, "Girl Talk," on a Christian radio station. Through that ministry, she ended up speaking throughout the area in the Midwest in which they lived. After her husband's homegoing, she was on staff (in a teaching capacity) at a church that friends of her and her husband were pastoring. She has been writing books since her husband moved to heaven. In the order they were published, they are "Journey in Grace," "Choosing for a Change," "Coming Out of the Cocoon," "From Darkness to Light," "Living in the Light," and now, "Teachings to Help You."

Holy Words Dec 11 2021 The meaning and significance of the Christian faith are diminished when its key words are not understood. Christians have a special vocabulary of holy words, but often have difficulty explaining what those words mean. As a result, blessings of understanding and spiritual comfort are less than full. This book is designed to help Christians express and appreciate the most important of faith's Holy Words. We assume, for example, that everyone knows what holy or glory or sin mean. But when we explore the history of these words we uncover a new depth of understanding. Preachers and lay leaders will find this resource helpful in their sermon preparation and Bible study. The index lists over 130 frequently used words, numbers, and phrases which have special significance in biblical and religious writings. Some examples are: amen, benediction, clergy, devil, Eucharist, kyrie, love, Yahweh; and numbers such as 1, 3, 4, 7, 10, 40, and 70 x 7. Also included is an eight-lesson guide that will help users conduct a fascinating group study.

Prayer Revolution Sep 27 2020 Are you praying constricted prayers or disruptive ones? Most prayers are constricted ones. They're prayers that only focus on one part of the Lord's Prayer: "give us our daily bread." They're usually focused on self and envision God as a heavenly caretaker. Disruptive prayers, on the other hand, are powerful, uncommon, and deeply biblical. They focus on God rather than self, seek to advance the kingdom, and submit all things to God. They are also prayed with a profound belief that prayer actually accomplishes something. When we pray disruptive prayers, that's when the revolution begins. This book shows you how to equip leaders, fuel kingdom movements, and do real damage to the powers of darkness in the here and now. But most of all, discover how your own heart will be transformed as you begin to see how much bigger prayer, and God, is than you ever thought possible.

Storm Jul 06 2021 Storm: What Jesus Is Saying to His Church is a book for every Christian who is concerned about the challenges that face believers today. Using powerful stories of people who have been transformed by Christ, it will strike a note of encouragement and hope, helping Christians to remember that a life surrendered to Christ in the midst of a church transformed by his presence cannot be defeated. No amount of spiritual darkness or cultural pressure can drown out the life-giving power of the gospel. Jim Cymbala believes that the church in America is in the middle of a powerful storm, the intensity of which is likely to increase in coming months and years. Many Christians are bewildered, disheartened, and concerned by what they see—a culture that's become increasingly hostile to biblical Christianity and a church whose vital signs are quickly waning. Like the storm surge that overtook lower Manhattan during Hurricane Sandy, powerful forces have come together to create a surge that's threatening the health of the church. Storm will talk about the tendency on the right and on the left to conflate the kingdom of God with a particular political party. Many conservative Christians have made the mistake of substituting America for the Israel of the Old Testament, failing to realize the danger of adopting Old Testament principles that were never affirmed in the New Testament. Their message has sometimes been harsh and legalistic, making it difficult for them to proclaim a gospel of grace. Even though there is a great deal of emphasis on the Bible in such churches, it can often be the wrong emphasis. Jim Cymbala will explore the importance of preaching a gospel of grace rather than a gospel of mixed messages, so common in the church today. He will speak of our need to understand spiritual battles and for total dependence on the Holy Spirit, and he will discuss the importance of prayer. He will also explore the motivational atmosphere of the early church which flourished despite far worse conditions than those we face today. We don't need more church growth programs to turn the church around. What's needed is a transformation at the heart of the church so that the gospel is preached, the Holy Spirit is allowed to lead, and lives are transformed.

SAMPLER May 16 2022 Enjoy these SAMPLE pages from Honoring God in Red or Blue--As our nation approaches a decision of another presidential election, they're also faced with the great challenge of discussing political issues with grace, truth, and love. Many believers fall into one of two traps: becoming so outspoken that their political fervor becomes a detriment to their Christian testimony or fearing controversy to the point of silence on important issues of faith and community. Dr. Black brings a sensibility and urgency to the issue with this nonpartisan guidebook for debating key issues with respect and conviction. For anyone frustrated until they're red in the eyes or blue in the face--or those who bite their tongues or withdraw completely from the discussion, this book is a critical manifesto to improving both our government and our sense of civility in the discourse.

The Human Element in the Making of a Christian Mar

22 2020 Excerpt from The Human Element in the Making of a Christian: Studies in Personal Evangelism Any vital discussion of personal evangelism ought to be carried on between two individuals alone, if it is to be personal; and therein lies the difficulty in writing a book on this subject. We are naturally reticent about our inner life and shrink instinctively from revealing those processes by which our spirits have been disciplined and made fit for true fellowship with God. Nevertheless, we who are Christians need to help people to understand the laws of cause and effect as they apply to Christian experience; we must be able to answer some of the practical questions that are put to us by those who seek reality in the spiritual life and need working principles; and we want, by our counsel, to help and not to hinder those who are within our influence. People do not usually find their way into the kingdom without some personal help. Our Lord spent a large portion of His time in dealing with the personal life of individuals and yet His chosen method has long been neglected by His followers. This little book has been written in the hope that it may help to define the human element in the making of a Christian. It does not pretend to deal with that part of the Christian life which is hidden with Christ in God, but is concerned chiefly with the human side of Christian experience, the moral situation we have to face in our own hearts, and the personal challenge that we meet in the teachings of Jesus Christ. It is written in the belief that if we have a rational understanding of human nature and its normal reactions we can apply the message of the gospel with more wisdom and help many be wildered or discouraged people to find their heavenly Father.

Warning! Go to Hell! or Not?
Feb 19 2020 This book, guided by the Holy Spirit, was written to help you fully embrace Jesus, the Christ, as your Savior and your God. Christ means "the anointed one." This book, along with God's Word, is to help you gain a more complete knowledge, understanding, and application of the gospel in your life. This book is to help you gain a strong foundation for your life with God. Christians are to reach unbelievers and introduce them to Christ. My book is about understanding God's Word to be a born-again believer (salvation). It is for building a strong foundation in the believer that has been in the church. It is for new believers to help build a Christian foundation for fuller understanding to stay focused on our process of Christianity to salvation when we physically die. It is laying out the needed information in a more logical way to get to heaven. God tells you to study to show yourself approved to him. A lot of study is needed. God did not lay it all out in 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 order. All need full understanding. All need spiritual maturity to enable full understanding. There is too much confusion in the church, and this will help. The next book will be bringing to light some of the confusion in the church. God's Word is God's Word and not always what you have been taught from too many different sources combined with wrong interpretation, leading to your output.

The Way of Mystery Jun 24 2020 The Vatican II documents remind us that the spiritual journey is not made in a vacuum, that God has chosen to save us, not individually, but as The People of God. The Eucharist must help Christians to make their choices by discerning out of Christ's paschal mystery. For this process to take place, however, Christians must first understand how the Eucharist puts them in touch with Christ's passion, death, and resurrection, and what concrete implications being in touch with this mystery has for their daily lives. In The Way Of Mystery, James Keating and Dennis Billy examine the Eucharistic mystery to uncover its significance for Christian life today. They seek to discover what implications the simple act of breaking bread together has for the concrete decisions Christians make. And they point out how, if Christian worship is to enliven the believing community, it must help the faithful to integrate the spiritual and moral dimensions of their lives by leading them to embrace the attitudes and values embraced by Christ. The book is intended for an educated lay audience. It is also idea for adult continuing education classes, as a text for undergraduate courses seeking to integrate faith and the moral life.

The Camel We Christians Have Swallowed Nov 29 2020
Underway is the dawning of a new day, as the bright morning sun - representing "the sun of prophecy (Micah 3: 6)," lights the night - the darkness by which prophecy is often explained. With the light of Jesus shining brightly on the explanation of prophecy - "For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy (Revelation 19:10)," we understand it and the rest of the Bible clearly. "Truth to Share," this book's logo, is almost unseen. The title, arched overhead, represents a rainbow full of promise. The cover art is by the writer, inspired by a friend's visualization. The title itself is a word-for-word "given," as is the final section, "The Rainbow," in chapter seven. "The Camel We Christians Have Swallowed," as stated in the introduction, is not the well-known "eye of the needle" camel. It is from Matthew (23:23-24) where Jesus accused the Pharisees of straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel, neglecting the weightier matters of the law, justice, mercy and faith. (More explanation of this title is in the introduction and chapter one.)

The Making of Biblical Womanhood May 24 2020
USA Today Bestseller
Christianity Today 2022 Book Award Finalist (History & Biography) "A powerful work of skillful research and personal insight."--Publishers Weekly Biblical womanhood--the belief that God designed women to be submissive wives, virtuous mothers, and joyful homemakers--pervades North American Christianity. From choices about careers to roles in local churches to relationship dynamics, this belief shapes the everyday lives of evangelical women. Yet biblical womanhood isn't biblical, says Baylor University historian Beth Allison Barr. It arose from a series of clearly definable historical moments. This book moves the conversation about biblical womanhood beyond Greek grammar and into the realm of church history--ancient, medieval, and modern--to show that this belief is not divinely ordained but a product of human civilization that continues to creep into the church. Barr's historical insights provide context for contemporary teachings about women's roles in the church and help move the conversation forward. Interweaving her story as a Baptist pastor's wife, Barr sheds light on the #ChurchToo movement and abuse scandals in Southern Baptist circles and the broader evangelical world, helping readers understand why biblical womanhood is more about human power structures than the message of Christ.
